Placement match 5/6 Denmark vs Spain

Peter Bredsdorff-Larsen (assistant coach, Denmark):

"At the end we finished this tournament nicely; the game today only tells the level of the team at this time. We are going home with a positive feeling but we'll come back and we'll play better in Sweden."

Bo Spellerberg (player, Denmark):

"Yesterday was a tough day because we knew that we have to go home. But it doesn't matter how important the game is, we always have to be ready for it. We wanted to play a good last game."

Valero Rivera (coach of Spain):

"My resume of the tournament would be that we worked well, we played well and we were very near to the finals. I want to send my best wishes to Denmark, but I have to say that it was not a nice match."

Jose Javier Hombrados (goalkeeper, Spain):

"I think Spain did a very good job; we did everything to qualify but we didn't have good luck. Today was a very bad day morally, but now we have to think about the future and I think we are on a good way."

Semi-final Iceland vs France

Gudmundur Gudmundsson (coach, Iceland):

"When I look at the game I'm a bit disappointed with the first half. In this period we gave France the balls and they shot goals. The second half began very well, but it was a very difficult match and in the end it is a fair result."

Asgeir Örn Hallgrímsson (player, Iceland):

"France were really strong but we didn't make it very hard for them either. We had big difficulties in the second half."

Snorri Steinn Gudjonsson (player, Iceland):

"About tomorrow I have to say that Poland and Croatia are both great teams, it would be difficult to fight against both of them, but we want the bronze medal, so we will fight for it."

Claude Onesta (coach, France):

"It was a very good match; the best of all I guess. We knew that it would be hard to fight against a team such as Iceland. We had the chances steal balls and we made counter attacks."

Guillaume Joli (player, France):

"We focused on defence because we knew that this is difficult for Iceland. Now we are very happy to be in the final."

Franck Junillon (player, France):

"We knew this match would be hard, but we were defending very well and had good counter attacks. We are very confident to be in the finals- but now it is hard to fight again."

Semi-final Croatia vs Poland

Bogdan Wenta (coach, Poland):

"First of all I want to congratulate Croatia. I am a bit disappointed with this match because we had too many bad situations. We have to take the chances against Iceland and gain new energy."

Tomasz Tluczynski (player, Poland):

"I am very disappointed and I walked out of the court with a very bad feeling. Croatia are top team but this was bitter for us. Nevertheless we have to look ahead."

Bartłomiej Jaszka (player, Poland):

"All in all, I am positive about the tournament. It is good to be in the semi-finals but it would have been even better to reach the final. I also would like to congratulate Croatia – they arrived very well prepared for this tournament."

Lino Cervar (coach, Croatia):

"I want to congratulate Poland for an extraordinary and fair game. We came to the EURO with a very young team and two injured key players; nevertheless, we made it. For the Polish team I want to say that I want them to win the bronze medal."

Drago Vukovic (player, Croatia):

"I don't really know what the difference was today. The only thing that I can think of is that we changed our defence from 6:0 to 5:1 and this might be the reason we've won."

Domagoj Duvnjak (player, Croatia):

"I want to congratulate my team mates for an extraordinary fight from the first till the last minute of the game. I also want to thank our supporters. Now we have to rest a bit, but we are sleeping with a medal and nobody can take it away from us."
