Post-match press conferences

Bronze medal game Denmark vs Romania 15:16

Radu Voina, coach Romania:

Congratulations to my team for the extraordinary fight we demonstrated to win the Bronze medal. The low final score says everything. Such a score reminds us of many years ago but not of today's handball. We have had a strong defence so respect to all my players for this result.

Aurelia Bradeanu, player Romania:

I am very glad about the victory, it was not easy to recover from yesterday's lost semi-final, but we managed it and won.

Talida Tolnai, player Romania:

Congratulations to Denmark for a great fight and a fantastic game. Today God gave us lots of power to be the better team and to win this match, a game to secure a medal. Thanks for everyone at home and here in Denmark who kept their fingers crossed for us. I want to thank to my coach who tells us what is good and what not on court. Today it was victory day for Romania.

Jan Pytlick, coach Denmark:

Congratulations to Romania for the medal. They played their best match in this tournament today. The match proved that both teams were tired after an exhausting tournament. Romania won the match on their tactics, that was the key for their victory.

Camilla Dalby, player Denmark:

Romania were the better team today, we had a bad day and didn't succeed.

Susan Thorsgaard, player Denmark:

We were not in top shape today, so we suffered two defeats in a row on the final weekend. We wanted to finish the tournament positively, but we didn't succeed.

Final game Norway vs Sweden 25:20

Per Johansson, coach Sweden:

Six month ago we had a training session together with the Norwegians in Norway including some friendly matches.

Afterwards we trained hard in Sweden for ten days and three daily sessions each. We wanted to be one of the big guns in handball. So at first thanks to Norway for the help.

I am extremely happy, as we created our own style of playing. The first half of the final we played very well, and in case we would have led with four or fives goals at the break we might have had an opportunity to win. After the break Norway improved and was the better team. But I am absolutely happy for my girls.

Sabina Jacobsen, player Sweden:

We played a good first half, but after the break we were too tired, so we lost.

Thorir Hergeirsson, coach Norway:

It is important for us to have a good relationship with our neighbours so we invited the Swedish team. And in preparation of the EHF EURO 2010 the Norwegian coaches team predicted that Sweden would reach the semi-final. And we were right. Sweden has a good plan for the future and gave us a good fight in the final.

It was not a good match, but a hard fight for us. We had a good defence and goalkeepers, so I am very pleased.

By winning this title we won the jackpot, as we are qualified for the next three major tournaments. Now we can plan and work without the pressure of qualification matches.

Camilla Herrem, player Norway:

We played a good second half and we counted on a good defence and good goalkeepers. They saved us in the first half. I am proud of this team and of my coach.

Ida Alstad, player Norway:

We were sure that it would be a game with two strong defence sides and not so many goals. In the second half we showed that we had trained well and that we had more experience.
