Statements after the match France-Hungary

OLIVIER KRUMBHOLZ, head coach of France: The match was very important for both teams and that's why it was very tough. Hungary played good as a collective and we hadn't response to its team play. We still don't have enough experience for major tournaments so I expect to be much better in the future.

SIRABA DEMBELE (France): It was a decisive match and we lost. We are very young team, but I think we played very well for our age.

IMRE VILMOS, head coach of Hungary: We are happy to win this game cause it qualifies us for the Main Round. It was very important how we will approach the match. We knew from the start that this is the most difficult group but still we didn't expect that everything will be decided in the last match.

ORSOLYA HERR (Hungary): This victory was so important for us. It is result of great team work and we expect to play much better in the next round.

Statements after the match Denmark-Romania

JAN PYTLICK, head coach of Denmark: I think it was the best match in this group. We had some problems in defense at the past matches but now it was much better. It was obvious that some of my players don't have enough experience for such matches and that's why we made lots of mistakes.

KAMILLA KRISTENSEN (Denmark): Romania plays fine, fast and strong and we have a great respect to them. We have to be satisfied how we played at this match and now we have to go on.

RADU VOINA, head coach of Romania: It was the most difficult match in this very tough group and so this is very important victory for us. My team showed so strong mentality in the second half I was amazed of too. That was crucial for our victory.

NARCISA LECUSANU (Romania): Very tough game that brought us two very important points. Denmark was great opponent at this match, but at moment it proved to be less experineded.
