PRESS STATEMENT QUOTES

Group C

SWEDEN

Ulf Schefvert (coach): This was match with two different halftimes for us. We start good, in the first half everything was perfect, but in the second part we made too many technical mistakes. When Belarus leveled the score, we were very nervous. I hope that this was only a bad day for us and that we will improve our performance in the future matches.

Madeleine Grundstrom (player): I'm satisfied only with the first half, because in the second everything gone bad for us. My defense was very weak and I couldn't save more shots.

BELARUS

Konstantin Charovarov (coach): We start bad and very nervous because this was our first match. Also, I must say that we had big luck in this game, and I hope that luck will continue to follow us in the future.

Inhute Haizhutsitse (player): I thanks to my coach because of his good tactics. I hope that we will play good in the future matches.

RUSSIA

Evgeny Trefilov (coach): We played very good match. We have young team and in the next matches I expect much better performance.

Maya Petrova (player): Our team is very young and not so experienced. Some of the girls here are playing for the first time. Our tactics was to play aggressive defense and after that, our attacks were successful.

AUSTRIA

Herbert Muller (coach): Russia was much better team. I saw very good things in my team. In the future, when we will play with much weaker opponents, I hope that we will win and take place in the main round.

Katrin Engel (player): It is hard to play when the opponent is Russia. I hope that we will improve our game in the future.

GROUP D

Statements after the match between Croatia-Serbia

ZDRAVKO ZOVKO, head coach of Croatia: The first match is always tough, the players are under big pressure, especially if you play against team like Serbia, but we were prepared well. Maybe we didn't play at our best, but overall we were the better team and won deservedly. We made nine goals lead in the finish of the first half, then Serbia came close to equalizer in the second half thanks to our mistakes, but my players showed great character.

CASLAV DINCIC, head coach of Serbia: Both teams entered the match a little bit scared, but Croatia managed to surpass the pressure easier and built nine goals lead in ten minutes. We changed the playing style in the second half, cut the opponent's lead to only one goal but then came a two minutes suspension for my team I think was unfair and after that Croatia secured its victory.

SANELA KNEZOVIC (Croatia): It was the opening match of the Championship and that's why it was very tough. We were the better team for the most of the match and this victory is very important to us.

TANJA MEDVED (Serbia): It was obvious that Croatia was the better team, but I'm very happy by the way we fought. We have our chances but the Croatian team showed bigger quality.

Statements after the match Germany-Macedonia

ARMIN EMRICH, head coach of Germany: We knew the quality of the Macedonian team from the last World Championship and that's why we knew it won't be easy. I have never played in front of such crowd. The atmosphere was spectacular. We have some problems in attacks, but we covered it with good defense.

NADINE KRAUSE (Germany): It was not that easy cause Macedonian team played very motivated in front of the home crowd. We had a good start of the match but then we had to fight hard.

VLADIMIR GLIGOROV, head coach of Macedonia: The match was exciting, dramatic and tough. Maybe we don't have scorers like Jurack and Krause, but we played highly motivated and our defense passed the test. The defense was much better part of our game. Germany is more experienced and knew how to finish the match.

NATALIJA TODOROVSKA (Macedonia): We didn't play the best we can, but I expect to be much better in the next games. We played with some mistakes and we will try to erase them.
